

Landesstelle für Entwicklungszusammenarbeit Senatsverwaltung für Wirtschaft, Energie und Betriebe

- Questionnaire - Berlin Fellowship Program: Empowering Journalists in the Digital Field

Please answer all six of the following question blocks by using this fillable PDF and submit the completed questionnaire together with your identity documents, your CV and a completed and signed application form, each as a separate PDF document (in total 4 PDFs).

1) Please introduce yourself and your work briefly: What are the main topics of your work as a journalist?

2. Please describe your current personal safety situation in your home region. Are you being monitored, targeted, persecuted or threatened due to your journalistic activities right now? If so, to what extent and by whom?

3) Why is digital security important for you in your work as a journalist? Do have do deal with specific threats from the digital sphere?
4. Have you ever experienced digital violence (such as Online Gender Based Violence, Doxing, Impersonation, Trolling? If so, did it have an impact on your work?

5.	Have you ever participated in any other kind of training for digital security before?
_
	The overall goal of the program is that the participants spread their new knowledge th	out digital security for journalists once they go back to their home country. How and rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program? ho would be your audience you would like to address? Please elaborate.
th
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?
th	rough which channels would you share what you learned in the training program?

7) Do you already have experience as a teacher, trainer or with any other form of knowledge transfer?
8) What would you like to achieve by participating in the Berlin Fellowship Program?
9) Would you be willing to return to your home country after your stay in Berlin as a fellow of RSF?